

The Design Office<sup>1</sup> Summer Fellowship<sup>2</sup>: Space<sup>3</sup>, access to people<sup>4</sup>, books<sup>5</sup>, equipment<sup>6</sup> and ideas<sup>7</sup>

Apply by email:
fellowship@
thedesign
office.org

Resume

Describe your work
and how you plan
on using the space.

What projects do
you plan to be working on or are working on now.

Deadline:
March 31, 2014

Fellowship:
June–August
2014

The fellowship
is meant for
recent graduates (Masters or Bachelors)
interested in pursuing an independent
practice.

Fellows work
independently.

Paid commissions
or projects may
arise during the
fellowship, but
applicants are
expected to have
their own projects or project
ideas as a basis
for the fellowship. 3,000 sq/ft in Downtown Provi-
dence

[http://thdesign
office.org/place](http://thdesignoffice.org/place)

We want your ideas and our
ideas to mix.
This is not an internship, The
D.O. fosters
uncommissioned
projects and
speculative
projects at all levels.

1

Founded in 2007,
The Design
Office is a place that sup-
ports independent practitioners. Members
manage their own
practice, while
inevitably partnering for
larger commissions, grants
and other
self-initiated
projects.

4

Do your own work
alongside of 17
mid-career
designers, pro-
grammers and
artists. In addition to years of
thriving professional practice,
many members are
professors and
hold advanced
degrees from
Stanford, Yale,
RISD, CCA

[http://th-
designof-
fice.org/people](http://thdesignoffice.org/people)